Who were the Boston Red Sox many a star could I get many confident the Sox would win the life many largue personn ture to be more writing crowd began to charte the same feeling—and to voice it.

"And new I'm affald that I've been pixed" declares the genult Joseph. The newspaper boys didn't know they were fixing me but I've got a little feeling that they have. You know they ware linking me but I've got a little feeling that they have. You know they maniferally linked the Giantia in 1814, they fixed the Giantia in 1814, they fixed the Athietics in 1815, they fixed the Athietics in 1815, and they we intach a feeling of everronfidence may prevail along the Red Sox because so many sporting persons are picking them to graft the bunting this summer.

"I think I've got the islent that is necessary for a pennant winner" said lannin. 'and if the beys will go out and fight all the way there seems to be a good chance of their handing on top. But they do, the pennant chances are gorn.

"Robert Lee Hedges, where of the St. Louis Brewns. Is considerably amused by the fact that ofter seems to the dot they have an easy task. If they do, the pennant chances are gorn."

"Robert Lee Hedges, where of the St. Louis Brewns. Is considerably amused by the fact that ofter magnates are pressuling him in an attempt to get some of the processor of his players.

"Goals, I have to laugh," remarked Hedges, whereupon he laughed "Here's ward to the thought about the control of days where to the way and a many control of the control of the control of the seems to define a not the players.

McGraw was just about to turn down hobleson when he thought about the coaching idea.

Rebleson was a great cabeler in the old days and he always had accomplished great results in handling young pitchers.

"You're hired." McGraw said to Robinson. "You're title is coach. You're holwill he to develop my young pitchers.

Robinson made good, he labored long and patiently with "Ruhe" Marquard-but he got results. "Jeff." Tearcau was as wild as a Zuiu warrior when he was turned over to Robinson for "treatment." Tesreau today ranks as one of the greatest pitchers in basebail Robinson made a good pitcher out of "Al" Demarce.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 12.—Disorders occurred again Thursday night at a meeting addressed by H. L. King, who earlier in the week was attacked by auditors who objected to his attack on the Catholic church. Bricks and stones hurled through windows and various missiles thrown at him by persons in the audience finally put him to flight, after he had been dodging about the platform for some time, shouting his appeach. King slipped out of the hall and was driven away in an automobile. Robbed as Police Dine.

Chicago, ill. Feb. 19.—Two men Thursday night held up Henry R. Pontoron as he sat in his private hank 40 fest from the third precinct police sizion, and robbed him of money and jewels aggregating $7000. When the robbery occurred most of the detectives and police sergeants were attending the annual banquet of the Police Sergeants' Benevolent association.

"SAFETY FIRST" APPLIES TO FOOD SUPPLIES ABOVE EVERYTHING ELSE PURE FOOD Merchants are "Safety First" in supplying you with your food products. As they are careful to give you what they advertise, the most sanitary and the purest food products

One cannot be too careful in selecting just the right food at the right place. Much illness can and will be prevented if housewives will insist upon "SAFETY FIRST: -ABSOLUTE CLEANLINESS.

Demand that every article of food that you buy is bought from a strictly sanitary grocery. meat market, dairy, restaurant, drugstore, etc., and that it is handled in a simon pure sanitary manner by clean careful clerks.

Housewives are directly responsible for dirty groceries, meat markets, dairies, drugstores, restaurants, etc., for if they will insist upon "SAFETY FIRST" by calling the attention of the merchant to an unclean employee or store; almost immediately the merchant who has the welfare of his customers and his business at heart will transform the shop into a sanitary one. A prosperous merchant will take the hint gracefully, and thank you for the suggestion, for it may be that being very busy he depends upon the up-to-date, sanitary food store, will not neglect it in the future. Buy from "PURE FOOD" merchants who advertise on this page and you are assured of "SAFETY FIRST" pure food
